

Refund & Cancellation Policy

We understand that returns may be necessary under certain circumstances. Therefore, we have established the following return policy for our products:

Subscription Services: All subscription purchases are final, and there will be no refunds unless an exception is made by the Moneyline team, due to extenuating circumstances. Once subscribed to our services, you will have access to our community, resources, and tips, for the duration of your subscription period. You may cancel your membership at any time by opening a ticket on Discord, contacting the Moneyline support email, or referring to the directions in the “membership-management” channel (under the “Get Started” tab).

*Disputed payments will result in the immediate termination of your membership and community access. Additionally, customers who have disputed subscription payments in the past will no longer be eligible to sign up for a Moneyline Trading subscription in the future.

Note: Moneyline reserves the right to grant a refund if deemed appropriate. We care for our community and are always willing to help our members in any way that we can. If you have experienced unforeseen circumstances and would like to request a refund for your subscription purchase, contact the support email and include the following information:

- First & last name
- Discord name
- Refund request amount
- Reasoning for request

Products: We offer a 30-day return policy for all physical products purchased from Moneyline Trading LLC. If you are not satisfied with your purchase, you may return it within 30 days for a full refund. The product must be in its original packaging and in a resalable condition.

Digital Products: We do not offer returns for digital products, including e-books, online courses/webinars, and all other digital materials.

If you wish to request a return for a physical product within the 30-day return period, please contact our customer support email [support@moneylinetradingco.com]. We will provide you with instructions on how to return the product and issue a refund upon receipt of the returned item.
