Premium Signals, legally known as VLO Publishing LLC, is a publishing company that does not act as a personal investment advisor for any specific individual or group of individuals. Nor do we advocate the purchase or sale of any cryptocurrency or investment for any specific individual or group of individuals.

The proprietary recommendations and analysis we present to subscribers is for the exclusive use of subscribers. Readers should be aware that although our track record is very highly rated, investment markets have inherent risks and there can be no guarantee of future profits. Likewise, our past performance does not assure the same future results.

The past performance of any trade whether actual or hypothetical is not necessarily an indication of future results. Cryptocurrencies of all types can have large potential rewards, but also carry large potential risks. We make absolutely no representation that gains or losses demonstrated in services published by said publishing company are very likely or achievable. Hypothetical trading examples also cannot possibly take into account the impact of liquidity or buyer and seller demand, and do not allow for slippage and associated trading costs and concerns. One must be aware of the risks and be willing to accept them in order to invest in the cryptocurrency markets.

One should never trade with money that one cannot afford to lose, and one must accept that there will be losses, and one must be able to sustain these losses, both from a financial as well as an emotional perspective. Recommendations are for the exclusive use of subscribers and can change at any time. It may contain errors and you shouldn't make any investment decision based solely on what you read as part of this service. It is your money and your responsibility. Owners and employees of Premium Signals have an equal opportunity to invest in the signals provided by the technical analysts at the same time they are distributed to all of our subscribers.

6. Refund Policy. Our service is non-refundable by nature as we provide our time and resources no matter how much you use them. Please be sure our service is what you desire before buying. You are responsible for keeping track of your renewals. If you forget to cancel before your renewal date, you will not be provided with a refund.
