

WHALE ROOM DISCLAIMER

1. Not Financial or Trading Advice:

The information, content, and discussions shared within Whale Room, including but not limited to market analysis, strategies, and opinions, are provided solely for educational and informational purposes. Nothing shared by Whale Room or its members shall be construed as financial, trading, or investment advice. You are solely responsible for conducting your own research and must consult with a qualified financial advisor before making any trading or investment decisions.

2. No Liability for Losses:

Whale Room, including its owners, administrators, team members, and affiliates, shall not be held liable for any financial losses, damages, or adverse outcomes arising from the use of any information provided within the server. Trading and investing in cryptocurrencies or other financial instruments carry significant risk and may not be suitable for all individuals. Any trades or investments undertaken are done entirely at your own risk.

3. Moderators Are Not Employees:

None of the moderators, assistants, or any other contributors are employees of 'Whale Room.' Moderators and assistants are independent contractors who assist in managing the community. Their actions or opinions do not represent the views or positions of Whale Room.

4. Payments Through Authorized Channels Only:

All payments must be made exclusively through the Whop portal for subscriptions or any payments relating to Whale Room. Any request for payments outside of authorized channels should be reported immediately. Whale Room does not accept or request payments through any other means.

5. Prohibition of Private Trading Services:

Team members, affiliates, and moderators of Whale Room are strictly prohibited from offering, promoting, or engaging in private trading services, fund management, or any other services for members of the server. Engaging in such activities is a severe violation of our rules and will result in the immediate expulsion of the offending team member. If any individual claims to represent Whale Room or Crypto Banter and offers to trade on your behalf in a private capacity, whether or not they have custody of your funds, you must report this immediately. Whale Room does not endorse or assume responsibility for any private arrangements between members and team members or any third-party services offered within or outside the server. Should you be approached with such an offer, report it to reports@cryptobanter.com with supporting screenshots of the conversation and the Discord profile.

6. Third-Party Links and Content:

Whale Room may share links or references to third-party websites, services, or content. Whale Room does not assume any responsibility for the accuracy, reliability, or legality of content provided by third parties. Your reliance on any third-party content is done at your own risk.

7. No Guarantees of Performance:

Whale Room makes no representations or guarantees regarding the accuracy, completeness, or timeliness of the information provided within the server. Past performance of any strategy or recommendation does not guarantee future results. All information is subject to change without prior notice.

8. User Responsibility:

By participating in Whale Room, you acknowledge and accept that you are solely responsible for your own trading and investment decisions. You agree to use the information within the server responsibly and understand the inherent risks associated with trading and investing.

9. Legal Jurisdiction:

Participation in activities and discussions within Whale Room is intended only for individuals located in jurisdictions where such activities are lawful. It is your responsibility to ensure that your participation complies with all applicable laws, regulations, and restrictions in your country or region.

Whale Room: Do's and Don'ts

Do's

- Use Content for Educational Purposes: All content provided in Whale Room, including research, trades, charts, and analysis, is strictly for educational purposes. Use this information to enhance your knowledge and make informed decisions.
- Use Risk Management At All Times: Always employ risk management strategies such as stop losses and set profit points for every trade. Ignoring these essential tools is considered high risk and is not recommended, as it can lead to substantial losses.
- Report Suspicious Activity: Immediately notify the Whale Room team if any individual, including team members, requests money or offers to manage your funds at reports@cryptobanter.com. Whale Room does not manage funds or solicit money from members.
- Do Your Own Research (DYOR): Always perform your own research before making any trading or investment decisions. Information and insights provided within the server are educational tools and should not be considered direct advice.
- Stay Engaged and Ask Questions: Utilize your access to the Whale Room team by asking questions and engaging in discussions to improve your trading knowledge.

Don'ts

- Don't Treat Information as Financial Advice: The content provided in Whale Room is not financial or trading advice. It is for educational purposes to help you develop trading skills.

- Don't Send Money to Anyone: Whale Room or its team members will never request funds or offer to manage your money. Report any such requests immediately.
 - Don't Engage in Private Trading Services: Team members are prohibited from offering private trading services or managing funds for other members. Report any such activity.
 - Don't Rely Solely on Signals for Trading: Trading signals are tools to complement your overall strategy. You should not rely solely on them without conducting your own research.
 - Don't Trade Without Risk Management: Trading without using stop losses and profit points is highly risky. Always manage your risk effectively. Never trade with more than you are willing to lose, and ensure your trade size fits your risk management strategy.
- Don't Share Sensitive Personal or Financial Information: Protect your privacy by not sharing personal or financial information within the server.
 - Don't Fall for Scams or Impersonators: Be cautious of potential scams or impersonators. Verify all suspicious communications with official Whale Room channels.
 - Don't Ignore Risks: Trading and investing, particularly in cryptocurrencies, involve substantial risk. Losses are possible, and you should never trade with funds you cannot afford to lose.
