

Rage Pro Return Policy

Last Updated: May 2, 2025

Hey Rage Pro members! Here's the deal on returns and refunds—let's keep it straight.

1. No Refunds, No Exceptions

Rage Pro is a digital membership (tools, live calls, community access), and all sales are final. Once you purchase, there are no refunds or returns, even if you cancel early or don't use the service. We deliver the tools, sessions, and alpha as promised—check #announcements for live events—but trading results aren't guaranteed, so make sure you're ready to commit before joining.

2. Cancellations

You can cancel your membership anytime through Whop. If you cancel, you'll still have access until the end of your billing cycle, but you won't get a refund for any unused time. No partial refunds, either.

3. Chargebacks and Disputes

If you file a chargeback or dispute with your payment provider, we'll contest it. We provide the services as advertised (wallet trackers, live scanning, Pro Campus lessons), and our no-refund policy is clear. Filing a chargeback may also lead to your account being banned from Rage Pro with no re-entry.

4. Contact Us

If you're having issues or not seeing the value, let's talk! Open a ticket in #support, and we'll help you get the most out of Rage Pro. But refunds aren't an option.

Let's keep the focus on trading and winning together!
